PLANS COMPLETE FOR THE VETERANS

Norfolk Committees Perfect Arrangements For Grand Camp Meeting.

A WARM WELCOME FOR ALL WHO COME

Reunion of the Confederates and Sons Looked Upon as One of the Greatest Meetings of the Exposition Year - The Program.

NORFOLK, VA., October 10.—Preparations for the meeting of the Grand Camp of Virginia, Confederate Veterans, and Sons of Veterans, on October 232, 24th and 25th, have been completed by the local organizations of Veterans, Sons, Daughters of the Confederacy and Confederate choirs.

Each veteran and son will be given a warm welcome by a reception committee, appointed to see that no one is neglected, and if each of them does not find plenty to entertainingly occupy his time and attention during the intire three days of the meeting, it will not be because the program does not provide for it. The local veterans, ions and Daughters have been must be provided for it. The local veterans, ions and Daughters have been must be found that the skirt—new model vests—and in the skirt—new model vests—and in the skirt—new model vests—and 15.00, $18.00, $20.00 to $20.00. When may we look for you in?

WILLIE.—

WILLIE.—

Say! Do you work from the inside out, or from the outside in; Do you begin with underwear and work to everoat, hat? Or do you begin with underwear and work to everoat, hat? Or do you begin with underwear last. It really don't make any difference at our store work; the good, honest goods are right here for you.

Hers it is past the middle of October, and we are getting in the granders of New York and through the tunnitire three days of the meeting, it was a little shorter—no vents in the skirt—new model vests—and old prices—$1.50, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00 to $20.00. When may we look for you in?

f yeterans:
D. S. Burwell, chairman; H. L. Vorthington, J. T. Hargrove, A. Myers, solonel G. A. Martin, W. C. Whittie, onn G. Walker, A. J. Broughon, R. H. Gwathmey and R. S. Broughon, R. H. Gwathmey and R. S. Broughon, R. H. Gwathmey and R. S. Broughon, ngs.

It will be noticed that the Confedertic choir for the first time plays an important part in the meeting.
Confederate Veterans' Week will also

Confederate veterans were with a considerate veterals of a busy week for society.

6 The Betalled Program.
The detailed program for the Grand amp meeting best tells what is going happen. It follows:

Wednesday, October 23d. MORNING.

12 M .- Grand Camp convenes at th

Armory Hall.

Selection by band.

Music—"Virginia," by United Confederate choirs.

Prayer—Rev. J. P. Hyde, grand

Address of welcome on behalf of the ity of Norfolk, by Mayor James G.

onse, by General Thomas T. d, of Lynchburg, first lieute-Grand Camp, Confederate Vet-

William C. Whittle,
Selection by band.
Response, by Colonel Thomas Smith, of Warrenton, Va.
Music—"Suwanee River," by United
Confederate choirs.
Address on behalf of the business organizations of Norfolk, by President William T. Anderson, of the Boar dof Trade.
Response by Judge Samuel W. Wil-

Boar dof Trade,
Response, by Judge Samuel W. Williams, of Wytheville, Va.
Music—"Dixle," by United Confederate choirs, with band accompani.

AFTERNOON.
M.—Music by United Confed-Reports of officers, standing, and

Music, by United Confede

Thursday, October 24th.

A. M.—Grand Camp convenes at Ar

AFTERNOON.

3 P. M.—Annual meeting United Con-federate Veterans, Yirginia Division, Major-General Stith Bolling command-credit ing.
4 P. M.—Grand Camp convenes at Armory Hall.

Music by United Confederate choirs,
Unfinished and new business.

EVENING. 8 P. M.—United Confederate Veterans will attend the performance of "Poca-hontas" at the Hippodrome as the guests of Pickett-Buchanan Camp, Con-federate Veterans and Sons of Con-federate Veterans,

10 A. M .- The veterans will be met at the Inside Inn gate by Lieutenant Harry Newton Cootes, and escorted to the reviewing stand on Lee Parade,

Dy You Lack

Energy?

Grape Nuts

"There's a Reason"

STORE CLOSES SATURDAY 10 P. M.

"Wise Talks by the Office Boy"

While not more than 400 veterans, are expected to aftend the Grand Camp are expected to aftend the Grand Camp and are expected to aftend the Grand Camp and account of it. More than 100 concording are and at Jamestown since the opening of the exposition, but the meeting ling of the exposition, but the meeting of the Confederates is looked forward to as being far the most interesting of them from a local standitersting of them from a local standitors been made for the reception and tons been made for the Grand Camp, say the trainment of the Grand Camp, say the trainment of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the confederate of the confederate of the confederate of the confederate of the exposition. Alvah H. Martin, distribution of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the Grand Camp and the confederate of the confederate of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the Grand Camp and the confederate of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the Grand Camp and the confederate of the Grand Camp and the confederate of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the Grand Camp and the confederate of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the Grand Camp and the confederate of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the Grand Camp and the confederate of the Grand Camp and the confederate of the Grand Camp, say the first time plays an account of the Grand Camp and the rective of the Gra

Infantry.

Twenty-third Infantry.
Battery D. Third Fleid Artillery.
Second Squadron, Tweifth Cavairy.
Naval Post Band.
Seventy-first Virginia Regiment.
Horner Milliarry School.
Confederate Veterans (camps to form on pier according to number).
Sons of Confederate Veterans (camps to form on pier according to number).

Sons of Confederate veterans (camber). to form on pier according to number).
Exercises at the Auditorium.
11:30 A. M.—The Grand Camp will convene at the Auditorium. Building, where the following program will take

Address of Welcome—Hon. Harry St. George Tucker. Response—General W. H. Stewart, grand commander.

Music, by United Confederate choirs.
Business.

erans.

Music—"Bonnie Blue Flag." by the Seventy-first Regiment, Virginia United Confederate choirs.

Address of welcome on behalf of School will reassemble on Lee Parade

Address of welcome on benait of School will reassemble on Lee Parade Pickett-Buchanan Camp, by Captain for dress parade and review.

William C. Whittle.
Selection by band.
Response, by Colonel Thomas Smith, of Warrenton, Va.
Music—"Suwanee River," by United Confederate choirs.

Address on behalf of the business rans.

9 P. M .- Colonial ball at the expo-

Places Inside Inn at Jamestown For no girl I'll try my Exposition Practically in Hands of Receivers.

Judge Edmund. Waddill, Jr., of the 9 A. M.—Grand Camp convenes at Armory Hall.

Music by United Confederate choirs.
Prayer, by Grand Chapiain.
Communications, memorials and unfinished business.
Adjournment.

Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., of the Eastern District of Virginia, was engaged for several hours yesterday in hearing argument by counsel for and against the appointment of receivers for the the appointment of receivers for the Inside Inn, at the Jamestown Exposition.

The motion was made by certain creditors of the hotel company, who complained in their bill that they could not collect money due them by the concern

Attorneys representing the company made an extract appeal to the court not to appoint receivers, and declared that if allowed a little time their clients s P. M.—United Confederate Veterans will attend the performance of "Pocahontas" at the Hippodrome as the guests of Pickett-Buchanan Camp. Confederate Veterans and Sons of Confederate Veterans and Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Friday, October 25th.

Confederate Veterans' Day at the exposition.

9:15 A. M.—Veterans, Sons of Veterans, Confederate choirs, sponsors, maids of honor and guests will assemble at the foct of Commerce Street to take the stemmer. Rosedale for the Deepwater Pior, Exposition Grounds, where the parade will form at 10 octook.

10 A. M.—The veterans will be met

SUES FOR $10,000

Mrs. Putney, the Pinintiff, Says She Was Suit for $10,000 damages was filed in the aw and Equity Court Friday by Mrs. acy P. Putney against the Robert Portner lady P. Putney against the Robert Portner Brewing Company, the allegations being that she was badly injured when her carriage was struck by a delivery wagon owned by the defendant. The complaint states that she has not fully recovered from the bedly histories received, and that already she has paid the sum of $1,000 to physicisms, called to attend her.

The accident happened on Main Street between Fifteenth and Seventeenth about a year age.

year ago.

One New Charter.

The Corporation Commission has issued a charter to the Plantiers Telephone Company, Nerfolk. J. G. DeBaun, president; J. P. Hall, vide-president; V. Engel, scenariary, D. M. Williamson; treasurer—all of Norfolk; Copital Maximum, $5,00; minimum, $1,000, Objects; Telephone line.

OFFICERS OF GRAND CAMP OF VA. AND SPEAKERS AT OPENING

Et I. VALENTINE, 100 W. Lombardy.
Her chances are "nit" for a mate.
CAROLINE B. NIXON, Achiand, Va.
Her birthday she'll not celebrate.
B. L. Bowling Green, Va.
Wedded life; its a blessed estate.
There are things you can't renovate.
MRS. THOS. J. WESLEY, 452 W. Peach tree, Atlanta, G.
Swe's got this for loobing with fate.
MILDRED BLACK, 208 Meadow.
When old maids cease angling, it's late.
Nixt see
MRS. MART W. GREEN, 208 Meadow.
When old maids cease angling, it's late.
MRS. MART W. W. BLEEN, 457 Meadow.
When old maids cease angling, it's late.
MRS. MART W. GREEN, 208 Meadow.
When old maids cease angling, it's late.
MRS. MART W. GREEN, 111 E. Leigh.
For these three she's duite out of date.
ANN CLARK, 203 W. Franklin.
Blane not take we wed real estate.
WRS. MATTIE E. CHERY, 617 N. 21st
Her hopes—though deferred—any-mate (an
MRY L. JONES, Box $17, City
Maxine, this is said; but 'tis fate.
Nars. J. H. A YRES, Accomac, Va.
Maxine has wedded her fate.
MRS. J. H. A YRES, Accomac, Va.
Maxine has wedded her fate.
MRS. L. H. A YRES, Accomac, Va.
MRS, JOS. B. LVNE, City,
Dor't clope and get papa irate.
MRS, J. M. ROBINSON, Palls, Va.
Snells be left; so the shelf like a-slate.
MRS, H. K. W. TIS N. Morris.
She looks like old Endor's playmate,
Old Charon would e'en hepslitte.
T. M. TIGNOR, Highland Park,
Should she matry now, Gold help her mate.
N. K. WILSON, City.
Stop angling, you've out of bait.
RUTH T. WILSON, S19 W. Grace.
For marriage ha, ha, but you're late!
OLIVER CASTLEMAN, Elkyldge, Md.

MRS, W. M. BICKERIS, Jr., City. And now you'll take any old rate.
JOHNSTON A, GATES, 704 N. 25th.
We admire the gray on your pate,
It is never with her now, or late.
Do sliver threads have any weight?
Those rings bought that wig on her pate.
The clock on her steeple strikes late.
Soor your gander will quack at the gate.
MRS, LUCY BALL, Drake's Branch, Va
She's a job lot at less than half rate.
She is the last rose of summer, blooming late.

late.

Hurry up—she can no longer walt,
Le: us send her a husband by freight.
E. L. GILES, 302 W. Grace,
Sho'll be hocked at the thirty-cent rate.
You're euchred: soltaire is your fate.
JOSEPH W. EVERETT, Keswick, Va.
Marriage bells are for Max out of date.
School teaching or nursing's your fite.
A WINSTON, 304 Willoughby Ave., Norfolk, Va.
Skiddoo, twenty-three was your fate.
MRS, JOHN FRISCHKORN, JR., City,
As good fish in the sea, but stale balt.

MRS. JOHN FRISCHAORN, JR., CHY, va good fish in the sea, but stale balt.
MRS. LORRAINE G. RICKEY, Box 96 "Englottesville, Va.
Co're holding "chicane" hands of late.
Poor limerjeker, left by sad fate.
MRS. JOHN HUNTER, 401 E, Grace.

In Gold, Silver, Cut-Glass.

If you are interested in something in the above tines---which is exclusive in design, perfection in workmanship and reasona? ble in price, we can serve

We invite your inspec-

Schwarzschild Bros. Jewelers, Corner Broad and Second

Vise folks all wait a Maximum rate.

JNO. M. HOLLADAY, M. E., Holladay, ANTE A. COUBILL, Peterburs, Va. For finat ten spot I'd be your fond mat JOHN J. SANGSTER, Burke, Va. Hei "dot" is not tempting as bait, CLARA C. TITUS, Barton Heightts, Walter and the femon you ate? WALTER (IANS, 1421 Grove Avenue, You'll soon be passe at this rate. MARY I. FOSTER, Williamsburg, Va. Say, Maxle, make, up a new safete, R. L. HUGHES, Greensboro, N. C. Old Miss Max condunes, 60 well, "I MRS, J. A. MOIR, Martinspille, Va. MARY G. ANDERSON, Clifton Forge, My dear, you're too old for a mate. J. E. JOHNSON, 413 E. Clay, For wedding ripes, you are too late. My dear, you're too old for a mate.
J E. JOHNSON, 411 E. Clay.
For wedding rinks you are too late.
FLORENCE LAUGHTON, 898 N. Tenth.
Sis', smoke up, you'll yet get a mate.
Don't biame us! "Twas nil done by fate!
MARY LAVINDER, Martinsville, Va.
It's better to be early than late.
T. S. LEAKE City.
Every "brother" you had has a mate.
Fast records amuse marfair mate.
Dear Maxine, time's flying don't wait.
Sill' trailing your line with fits bait.
MRS. J. D. RENNOLDS, 2814 Hanover.
Do please, Mr. Batch, name the date.
MRS. H. S. JOHNSTON, Granite, Va.
Rtce suicide will end her sad fate.
S. E. S. MAUZY. City.
Dor't cry little girl, it is fate.
MRS. H. R. SMITH, 617 N. Twenty-sixth
Soul's affunity for Batch—name the date!
R. E. HROWN, 1401 Beverly. MRS. B. R. SMITH, 617 N. Twenty-sixth. Soul's affinity for Batch—name the date!
R. E. BROWN, 1401 Beverly.
You're a goner, old girl, it's too late.
A. N. ELMORE, 1834 W. Grace.
She's shopworn and quire out of date.
ELIZABETH LOGAN, Box 183, City.
Even her millions can't buy her a mate.
P. C. PLEASANTS, 395 Allen Avenue,
Dor't despair, for 'tis never too late.
ELLEM M. HARDY, 602 N. Sixth.
No. use, she is plumb out of date.
CORINNE BROWN, Martinsville, Va.
Paint and powder don't make a good bait.
GRAHAM MARTIN, 261 Sycamore St., Petersburg, Va.

Mr. Batch-hasht yet found a mate.

Her, hope now is some old bald pate.

MRS. W. T. WILLIAMS, South Bosion, Va.
Once "Queen of the Springs"—what a fate!

What, again, have you postponed the date?

R. Salle, Bedford City, Va.
She tried to cop me for a mate,
WILLIAM HANLEY, 820 E. Broad.

You're a goner, old girl, if you wait,

MRS. I. N. JONES, 123 220 St., Newport

News, Va.

Hymen's given that filly the gate,

News, Va.

Hymen's given that filly the gate,
MRS. H. V. PARKHAM, Petersburg, Va.
Will the new one be willing to wait?

J. M. CULLINAN, Box 880.

Stand back and wait for your mate,
MRS. W. E. HAGUE, 1705 Everett St.,
Manchester,
Your love light has faded of late,
Mother's wise apron strings were your fate,
ALGER R. WESTCOTT, 112 Cowardia
Ave. Manchester.

eat forty, but still up to date. MRS. W. T. MORRIS, 508 Hull St., Manhester.

Lat hee-haw decided your fate,
feroxide has addled your pate,
CORA W. McCLUNG, Eagle Rock, Va,
Why not try now to catch a brelate?

MRS. A. L. JERSEY, 2511 Park Avenue, Alleen Wilson would have shied at you W. H. SNOOK, 1008 W. Main. Diar Maxine, where is your mate?... MRS. J. B. SCHERER, R. F. D. No. is is all of Maxine to relate, MRS, W. C. McDOWELL, 8 North St.

Norfolk, Va. Like Hanny, she's up against fate. To Utuh she'll seen emigrate. MS, ADA B. BOICE, Ashland, Va. Sour grapes, Maxine (instituate), in sin you MRS. ADA B. BOICE, Ashland, Va. Sour Stapes, Maxine cinsinuate), in sin you use.

MARIE G. BAÜGHAN, Box 365, City, Hee-haw, you're clean out of date.

MRS. J. B. BOWMAN, Amherst, Va. You have failed in your hunt for a mate.

LILLIE RAUGHAN, Rio Vista, Va. She's an uncalled for package, what a fate.

She's on hand, but always too late.

MRS. W. A. MONTGOMERY, JR., Williamburg, Va.

The girl for just such a fate.

MRS, J. W. ROBERTS, Chase City, Va., Deeble Intraess? Wall, that's not her galt, L. T., Winston-Salem, N. C.

And say, 'In leap year you may mate.'

E. B., M., Winston-Salem, N. C.

Father Time should give her rebete.

Mrs. L. A. BERKELLEY, Danville, Va.

Maxine, your false curls afait on straight.

LELLA L. DAVIS, New York City,
Maxine, be good and 'I'll walt.

MRS. N. J. SMITTI, 2314 E. Gaice.

Try Mr. Batch, ere 'its too late.

MRS. P. C. UHINSTIAN, 418 E. Grace.

Try think she once ruled with the great.

M. J. FISHER, 210 Chamberlayne Avenue,
My wife asked me not to stay late.

C. P. AVELY, 114 E. 118th St., Manches ter.

Sliver threads, added lines, what 'a fate.

ter
Silver threads, added lines, what a fate.
(NO NAME), Whynesbere, Va.
Antiques are not quite out of date.
HESSID COGHILL, Mirord Va.
Old girl, you had better re-hat.
LEHOS, W. DANIEL, Lebanon, Va.
You've been handed glemon by fate.

Your suitors have all pulled their freight,
H. G. LAVINDER, Bristol, Va.-Tenm.
At her failure to strike the right gait.
W. S. GOOCH, Charlottesyllie, Va.
Some old gander will now find his mate,
P. H. BENTLER, Verdon, Va.
And say, miss, we bet now you'll walt.
MRS. JAMES W. GISH, Bedford City, Va.
Don't despair, the best always comes late,
S' get your wheelbarrow and walt.
ADA GOODLOE, Verdon, Vp.
He' who draws her should get a rebate.
Won't some match-maker find her a mate?
W. DEWEY COOKE, 17 N. Fith.
There's hope as long as there's balt.
MARCELLUS, E. WRIGHT, 2766 E. Frank-lie.

MARCELLUS, B. WRIGHT, 2705 E. Franklit.

It is lucky you've cash for a bait,
Yeu've turned from a peach to a date.

R. T. HARRISON 311 W. Grace.

A ROY HARRISON 311 W. Grace.

A ROY HARRISON 311 W. Grace.

A ROY HARRISON 311 W. Grace.

B ROWN 100 Beach to her slate.

R. E. BROWN 100 Beach on her slate.

R. E. BROWN 100 Beach on her slate.

LIZEE WRIGHT, Petersburg, Va.
We me dying to ask for a date.

She's soon twenty-three at this rate.

FRANK J. McCARTHY, Box 509, City.

Oice a fiber, but now only freight.

JINKS KREBLIN, Charlottesville, Va.

Evangeline seeking her mate.

You've waited two decades too late.

MARY PRATT, 1591 Central Avc., Indinapolis, Ind.

And make fun of the dye on her pate.

LOULA C. POWELL, Midothian, Va.

You sarje, my dear, without bait,

J. W. J., Keawlek, Va.

Lin'fick's over, it is tims we should mate,

LOULB WILKERSON, Gordonsville, Va.

Your Cupid darts did not go straight.

R. A. JONES 567 N. Twenty-fourth.

LOUISE WILKERSON, Gordonsville, V. Your Cupit darts did not go straight. R. A. JONES, 547 N. Twenty-fourth. Your half has grown gray on your pate. C. L. MOSBY, Bedford City, Va. Oh, cruel fate, it is too late. MARY C. NICHOLS, Bedford City, Va. You can't get me new, it's too late. MARY I. RUSSELIA, Bedford City, Va. You can be number two, if you wait. How fareth the old garden gate?

MRS. WALTER RUAN, Bedford City, V. You are swinging alone pretty late. Mills. WALLER MAD.

You are swinging alone pretty late.
ELSIE P. SATTERWAITE, 2106 Bayard
Ave, Wilmington, Del.
To get a sweet 'simmon, wait laty.
MRS. S. W. HARRIS, 2116 E. Broad.
Single blessedness to Marke, "cheap, skate,"
MRS. H. T. EAST, 1010 W. Marshall,
It's trained nursing she'll try for a mate.
MRS. WALTER E. JOYNER, 510 N. 26th.

"Ill marry you, dear, if you'll wait,

I'll marry you, dear, if you'll wait, LORENE JACKSON, 503 N. Twenty-see VIRGINIA R. ROBERTSON, 1215 Decatur St., Manchester, Poor. Maxine, the sour grapes ate. MRS. J. P. DAVIS, 80315 N. 281h. A cat was designed for your mate, MRS. J. W. SHAW, 905 W. Clay. She'll go night to St. Peter's gate, MRS. M. L. SELPH, 714 N. Twenty-third. Her throne she had best abdicate. J. S. SWAN, P. O. Box 543, City. Peor Batch, he will yet meet his fate. W. W. JONES, Box543, City. Her laugh decided her fate. FLORENCE MAXEY, Blackstone, Va. Silver threads shine bright on her pate. LOUISE GORDON, 4 W., Clay, You played with the boys till too late. W. W. JONES, Box 543, City. Hold on, Mr. Batch, won't you wait?

Hold on, Mr. Batch, won't you walt?
ALICE M. BURKE, Jennings Ordinary

Ve.
It's tough, but she's falled sure as fate.
Great Scott, won't none grab at her bail?
S.A. STEGER, Danville, Va.
On why would you not set the date?
ELIZABETH H. RAND, Longwood, Fla.
There are fish in the sea if you've bail;
MRS. GEO. W. RUSSELLL, 39 Union S.
Petersburg, Va.

Petersbury, Va.

Petersbury, Va.

I must leave Maxine, dear, it is late.
P. G. CHRISTIAN, Chestnut Hill.

The last rose of summer blooms late.
St. Peter still waits at the gate.
(NO NAME), Jamestown, Va.
You are a young fil to look so sedate.
Well, Max, are you still on the freight?
CHRISTIAN C. COOKE, Ashiand, Va.
Hee-haw, but those false teeth are great.
ALICE A. CALLOWAY, Norwood, Va.
Farewell, better never than late.
MRS. G. L. MORRISS, Bucklingham, Va.
Dear Maxine, Just charge it to fate.
MRS. M. L. JEFFERY, Newport News,
Va.

Va.

C. M. E., 2702 E. Grace.

C. M. E., 2702 E. Grace.

You used brass instead of gold bait.

AARON JEFFREY. Newport News. V.

Twe make a pair and sometimes a date.

FERCY B. TRAYLOR, City.

She's been missed—till it's almost too late.

She stays like a shipment of freight.

F. M. KELLEY, Box 113, Charlottesvill.

Va.

P. M. KEILEY, Box 113, Charlottesville Va. She will founder without her first mate. We observe he laughs best who laughs late Unclaimed crate of lemons by freight, SUE W. OWEN, Denniston, Va. Old mald, be resigned to your fate. MRS. F. LEWIS, Deferson, Va. Shue, "Justice," or she'll seal your fate. ANNA SMITH, 210 E. Main. You are too young and tender to mate. ANNA SMITH, 210 E. Main. You are too young and tender to mate. ANNA SMITH, 210 E. Main. You are too young and tender to mate. ANNA SMITH, 210 E. Main. You are too young and tender to mate. ANNA SMITH, 210 E. MRIS, W. Child, W. Who wants such a bird for a mate? M. E. BIRLTON, 2116 M.
To make a match now would be great. 410 N. Thirty-first. She'd like to, but now 'tla too.late. MRS. E. P. TAYLOR, 2514 E. Marshall. Toke me, Maxio, and smille at your fate. MRS. W. K. MARSHALL, Bowling Green in the state of the specified of the source is seeking a mate.

N. The old sooss is seeking a mate. The old sooss is seeking a mate. ANNIE THOMAS, Charlottesville, Va. Prot Burst Browner-Hink of his fate! Pri THYRISR, Uno. Va. It is sad, but you waltes too late. GEO. S. HUGHES, Warsaw, N. C. With Could she's and out of date. PAYSON BRUCE. 10815 N. Eighth, New, who do you think you will mate? VIRGINIA HYRD, 4121 W. Avenue. These she monkey not with your halt. VIRGINIA BYRD, 1111 W. Avenue. These shas monkey not with your hair. BIRDIE B. MASON, 407 E. Main. Mard has at last found a mate. FITZGERALD, 14 S. Third. Cne love-vantage out-steadnt wait! JOSEPHINE HOUSTON.

ACREMINE. HOUSTON.
As a corefield scarecrow, she'd be great.
C P STEMPR, 1114 S. Main St. Danville
Take care three-field paint sign! vanuts
Suckers yet might be caught with gold bais
There'll be no small Maxiess—thank fate!
Not up to, but long after date. of up to, but long after date. WM, STEGER, 7114 N. Main St., Danville. Val. Stevens.

Ya.

Ya.

Ya.

Ya.

J. J. HAGAN, Hex 159, Parnashus, Va.

Thunk flod, we quit her ore too late.

AHS. WALLERS STIPTON.

Engly fruit, a neach secking a date.

AHS. R. M. KENT, 313 S, Third.

That Maudie should so healtate.

Finest Quality Materials In Women's Regals

The first reason why Women's Regals preserve their true, stylish appearance and correct shape as long as you wear them is because they are made of the finest materials that can be procured.

$3.50 and $4.00

And when you consider the 611 East Broad Street.

COLLIN MARTIN, 267 Sycamore St., Pe-

COLLIN MARTIN, 267 Sycamore St, Fettrsburg, Va.

Hi, Maxie is still on the slate.

MRS. GIJAS. M. GILLLIAM, 200 S. Jefferson St., Petersburg.

An old girl, but lying in walt.

MRS. R. C. BRAXTON, Petersburg. Va.

Ferty summers won't bring Max a mate.

MRS. MOSES D. HOGE, JR. 308 E. Grace.

We are nephews, she's our auntie-date.

(ANONYMOUS.)

Come dear, won't you please set the date.

MRS. F. B. YOUNG, 168 N. Plum.

Deuble up xilx before it's too late. uble up Kix, before it's too late.
the game of love chess, it's check-mate, ax-imum is the word for your date.
WM. NELSON, Columbia. Va.
ou're a "peach," bur you ripened too late.
flirt who referred too late.
JESSIE LEE MCHANN, Chattanooga.
nn.

JESSIE LEE McHANN, Chattanooga. Tenn.
Tenn.
Get busy before it's too late.
MARY BOWLES, Chattanooga. Tenn.
You're all right, but long out of date.
FANNY B, WALLES, Chattanooga, Tenn.
Wanted—An old man for a mate.
R. Q. LOWRY, Bedford Springs, Va.
Ah, Cample Blackshurg, Va.
F. Green and Chattanooga, Tenn.
Wanted—An old man for a mate.
R. Q. LOWRY, Bedford Springs, Va.
R. Green and Springs, Va.
F. Green Maxine shitted her freight.
ANNA M CAMPBELL, Blacksburg, Va.
She salted her fing mines too late.
She Salted her fing mines too late.
She Salted her fing mines too late.
T. ("FRISTOPHER, Auburn Mills, Va.
Romember 'tis aever too late.
There will an alternative fate.
ELAINE WRIGHT, 512 Park, Avenue.
Did I hear you ask me to walt?
We'll send her a husband by freight.
MRS. C. MOORE, LaCrosse, Va.
Husbands flee from your 2:10 salt.
To 'take'.—you must needs vaccinate.
A. C. STOVER, 22 W. Cary.
Saying skidoo, twenty-three, is the date.
LOUISE T. JAMES, 115 N. Fourth.

MRS. S. FLOURNOY, 317 Cowardin Ave., Manchester.
Ain't I wid you? Why weep for a mate?
Hesset B. BaGHY, Ballswille, Va.
Criainly, madam—the auctioneer's rate!
MRS. GEO, HURT. Ballswille, Va.
Till she handed them 110 straight.
L. G. ADAMS, City.
There's hope if there is life; just wait,
MRS. LUCY McGILL, Bowling Green, Va.
Your future is too said to relate,
MRS. C. G. OWEN, 1013 E. Clay.
She won't count her years up to date,
MILDRED CALISCH, 405 Lombardy,
Go on, mark your name off the slate,
ELIZABETH HOLLADAY, Lewiston, Va.
Marry me before 'tis too late,
B. C. MOORE, 520 N. Twenty-eighth.
Love letters returned, please cremate,
You've grown rather wrinkled of late,
DAISY HUNT, 5091½ N. Fifth.
Old girl, you have waited too late,
CLARICE HENSON, Polndexter, Va.
Thies cheers for our youthful playmate,
MRS. I. D. GHOLSON, Red Lawn, Va.

CLARICE HENSON, Polndexter, Va.
Three cheers for our youthful playmate.

MRS I. D. GHOLSON, Red Lawn, Va.
"Tis Venus the old maids hate.
ELLA DOSWELL, New Canton, Va.
Ha ha, better user than late.
D. C. REIDD, Beaver Dam, Va.
After you, dear Gaston, with that date.
MRS. K. S. McGILVA, 303 E. Franklin.
Denr Maxle, she's lame in her gait.
MARIE RRIZZOLARA, 627 N. 28th.
It's Maxle that's had hoodoo fate.
LORETTO C. WREN, 2203 Hanover Ave.
Ain't you sorry you waited too late?
WIRT WALLIER, 2203 Jefferson Avenue.
Heed, girls, and escape her sad fate.
MRS. WILLIAM D. GAY, 711 N. 26th.
Yeurs is not an ancommon fato.
HENRY L. CUDLIPP, City.
The springs have fish very late.
MAMIE POLLEY, 114 S. First.
Ard make her quite mad and irate.
C. H. GARROD, West View, Va.
Yu can't, catch two fish with one bait.
She's marked as in dead one by fate.
LOUISE P. WEISIGER, 1219, Manchester
St. Peter will-find you a mate.
WALTER GANS, 1421 Grove Avenue.

LOUISE P. WEISIGER, 1210, Mancheste st. Peter will-find you a mate.
WALTER GANS, 1421 Grove Avenue, Poo bad; 'twiss all junk and no mate.
MRS. J. L. BEECH, 1115 Floyd Avenue, is the honeymoon train very late?
Make a noise like a wedding bell, Kate.
ALGER R. WESTCOTT, Ametia, Va.
Den't you wish you had me for a mate?
MARIE S. WILLIAMS, 200 Third Avenue, is a standard with the control of the con was paste jewels that hoodeced her fate. MRS, FRED PLEASANTS, 310 Shafe MRS. TRED TREASARS, and Sudder Bldg.

She's an old maid, right up to date.
FRANK B. REYNOLDS, 912 E. Clay.
You first, my dear Gaston; I'm late,
NELL C., FARRAR, Cliften Forse, Va,
Iley, whatcher doin' out so late?
G. D. EURITT, Stammon, Va.
A lemon's not the best sort of bait, #
MARY G. ANDERSON, Clifton Forse, Va.
Fice-haw, better never than late,
MARY D. TURNBULL, Lawrenceville, Va.
Of her conquests no more she will prate,
M. L. BENNETT, Ashland, Va.
Perhaps, now, you'll make some rebate,
L. A. GRAY, Palmyra, Va.
Auvertise, or I'll soon be too late,
W. F. DANCE, 1031 W. Grace.

State of the many strings for the bait.
SALLIE M. WITTE, 618 Crown St., Cincingati. O.
She must rule out and start a new slate.
M. D. BURRALL, 118 N. Third.
Oli maids should not sit up so late.
M. E. EAGLE, Newport News, Va.

WILL KEEP UP FIGHT.

North Carolina Tobacco Growers to Insist Upon Fair Prices.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., October 19.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the North Carolina Tobacco Growers' Association last night, after speeches by J. O. W., Gravely, of Rocky Mount: President R. K. Simmons, of the Farmers' Protective Association: President R. K. Simmons, of the Farmers' Protective Association: President C. C. Moore, of the North Carolina Division of the Southern Carolina Division of the Southern Cotton Association: Secretary T. B. Parker, of the Farmers' Allance: Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes, Colonel J. S. Cunningham, State Veterinarian Tait Butlet, the following resolution was adooted:

"Revolved, That the tobacco farmers of North Carolina never cease their efforts until they obtain in an honest way profitable prices for tobacco."

Superintendent John Duckett, of State normal schools, will hold on Monday at Pates, in Robeson county, the first teachers' institute for Creatan Indian teachers of Robason. At the same nince on October 25th, State Anditor B. E. Divon will address the Croatan people, and on October 25th, Dr. Dixon will address the Robason County Teachers' Ascociation of Lumberion.

The Charlotte Countre Club was incorporated to-day in the office of the Secretary of State with J. S. Cohran, Courter Club was incorporators.

Gavernor Glenn authorizes an exchange of courts between Judge Webb will hold the Cleveland County November 18th, and Moore Court November 18th.

HEAVY WEEK'S WORK A number of important meetings are scheduled for the City Hall this week. The Board of Aldermen will meet to-morrow night, and the Committee on Poor is scheduled for 7 o'clock on the same evening. The schedule for the remainder of the week is as follows:

Tuesday—Committee on Finance, 8 P. M.; Electricity, 8 P. M. Wednesday—Committee on Investigation of Finance Committee, 8 P. M. Friday—St. John's Burying Ground, 8 P. M.

The investigating committee is expected to being in a long-delayed report on the controversye between the Mayor and the Finance Committee.

HUNTER FOUND DEAD Benjamin Raiues (of Stafford) Supposed to Have Died of Heart Disease.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., October 19.
—Benjamin Raines, of Stafford, went hunting Thursday morning and took his gun and dog. The dog returned, but Mr. Raines did not. Sarch was but Mr. Raines and not. Sarch was made. Raines was found to-day, dead, near Stone's Mill. He was not shot acid is supposed to have died of heart disease. He was sixty years old, and leaves his wife and four children.

C. & O. WILL SELL $1.50 TICKETS TO EXPOSITION THREE DAYS IN ... EACH WEEK.

In order to give the Richmond people greater opportunities for visiting the exposition, the Chesapeake and Ohio will sell the $1.50 tickets three days each week, instead of one, tickets being sold on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, good on all regular morning trains going and all evening trains returning.

Bears the Biguature Charff Flutchire.

Woodward & Son. Heavy Timbers

The largest stock in the State of Long Leaf Yellow Pine Dimension Lumber, In-citeding large sizes and long lengths, for treaties, whereves, derricks and heavy struc-tures of all kinds. Special bills cut to order a, short notice and shipped direct from the Richmond and Manchester, Va. Fards and Buildings Covering 10 Acres.